

FOREWORD

All Praise is due to Allah Ta'ala, The Forgiver and Concealer of faults, The Guide to Repentance, The One Who Responds to Prayers.

'Salaat and Salaam upon the Protector and Guide of the Believers, Sayyidina Muhammad (صلى الله عليه وسلم), eternally.

This booklet is a transcription of one of Hazrat Maulana Yunus Patel Saheb's (Rahmatullahi 'alayh) comprehensive and unique Duas. The transcription is especially for those who make Du'aa in English.

Hazrat Maulana's beautiful, noble and distinguished style of Du'aa was appreciated by thousands throughout the world. Hundreds would endeavour to participate in such Duas during Ramadaan or when Hazrat Maulana was visiting the Haramayn Shareefayn. Thousands of others participated via Hazrat Maulana's website, by means of audio-streaming.

Whilst just a reading of Hazrat Maulana's Du'aa teaches one the manner of begging from Allah Ta'ala, Hazrat's sincere and deep-hearted Duas also brings about a transformation and a reformation within the heart.

Hazrat Maulana repeatedly mentioned that the best of Duas are the Duas of Rasulullah ﷺ, which cover and encompass every need of every person. In fact, the Duas of Rasulullah ﷺ should form part of our daily supplications.

...Be the occasion ‘Umrah, Hajj, or when in Madina Munawwarah, or the auspicious nights, or Eid, Hazrat Maulana’s Duas extended to almost ¾ of an hour...so beg from Allah Ta’ala as much as you can, for Allah Ta’ala is willing to accept our Duas.

May Allah Ta’ala grant acceptance to the humble effort made. May He make this booklet purely and solely for His Pleasure. May He make it a means of Taubah, guidance and inspiration to all readers, and may He make it a Sadaqa-e-Jaariyah (perpetual reward) for Hazrat Maulana, as well as for myself and all those who assisted in its publication. ...May Allah Ta’ala grant the ability to do what He loves and what He is pleased with – in word, deed and intention.

May Allah Ta’ala grant Hazrat Maulana the best of the Hereafter. (Aameen)

THE DU'AA OF THE AULIYA ALLAH...

Maulana Jalaluddeen Rumi (Rahmatullah 'alayh) had very beautifully described the Duas and tears of his great Shaykh, Hazrat Shamsuddeen Tabrezi (Rahmatullah 'alayh) in his acclaimed composition, The Mathnavi. He says therein:

"...Listen to the tears of the Auliya Allah<sup>1</sup>. When my Spiritual guide, Hazrat Shamsuddeen Tabrezi cries, the effect of his sincerity and his pain causes the very heavens to also cry. And when my Shaykh cries out of his Great Divine Love, the very heavenly bodies tremble and shake. And our Shams Tabrezi prays in such humility and with such earnestness that the Grace of Allah comes towards such a broken heart which lays its complaints before Him, and grants it the honour of Divine acceptance."

Dear reader, if you have had the privilege of listening to the Du'aa of Hazrat Maulana Yunus Patel Saheb (Rahmatullahi 'alayh), you too would attest to the above description of Maulana Jalaluddeen Rumi (Rahmatullah 'alayh). The same would be said.

The following Du'aa of Hazrat Maulana should be made to Allah Ta'ala in the heart-rending, inspiring, and affecting manner that it should be read, for it to be truly appreciated.

DU'AA OF HAZRAT MAULANA YUNUS PATEL SAHEB (RA)

All Praise is due to Allah Ta'ala,
The Most Beneficent, The Most Merciful.

'Salaat and Salaam be upon our beloved Master, the Rasul and Beloved of Allah Ta'ala, the Seal of all Prophets and Mercy unto the Worlds -
Sayyidina Muhammad (صلی اللہ علیہ وسّلّم).

- ◆ O ALLAH, bestow mercy and blessings upon our beloved Rasul, Sayyidina Muhammad and upon his family, his companions, his children, his wives, and his offspring, his followers and everyone from amongst his Ummah.
- ◆ O MOST MERCIFUL of all those who show mercy. O the Helper of those who ask for help. O our Sustainer who is most Generous. O The Most Forgiving.
- ◆ O EVER-LIVING AND EVER-SUSTAINING, we beseech You for help, through Your Mercy.
- ◆ There is none worthy of worship beside Allah, the Most Tolerant, Most Generous. Glory be to Allah, Lord of the Great Throne (Arsh). All praise is due to Allah, the Sustainer of the worlds. O Allah, we do seek all causes of the grant of Your Mercy and (we do seek) actions which will make certain Your Forgiveness, a full share of virtuous deeds and complete safety from sin. O Allah, let not a single sin of ours be left out from being forgiven; remove all our worries, and fulfil every need of ours which conforms to Your pleasure, O Most Merciful of all those who show Mercy.<sup>4</sup>

- ◆ O OUR SUSTAINER, we have wronged our souls. If You do not forgive us and bestow upon us Your Mercy, we shall certainly be from amongst the losers.<sup>5</sup>
- ◆ O ALLAH, forgive our sins.
- ◆ O ALLAH, overlook our sins.
- ◆ O ALLAH, conceal our sins.
- ◆ O MY ALLAH, how loving You are; how caring You are; how beautiful You are...

- ◆ O MY BELOVED ALLAH, O my Raheem Allah, O my Kareem Allah, O my Haleem<sup>6</sup> Allah, O my Most Forgiving Allah, O my Most Loving, Caring Allah, O my most Compassionate Allah...
- O ALLAH, we are unable to praise You as we should. You are as You have praised Yourself.
- ◆ O ALLAH, You dearly love the forgiveness of the sins of the sinners when they turn towards You in repentance.
- ◆ O MY BELOVED ALLAH, we are extending these hands of ours.

O MY ALLAH, they are the begging bowls which You have attached to our bodies, so that we may extend them before You during any part of the day and night, and seek from You.

O ALLAH, we are extending our begging bowls before You.

O ALLAH, we are not extending these hands before an idol which cannot see, which cannot hear and which cannot avail us in anything. O Allah, our hands are extended before You, and You are All Seeing, All Hearing, All Knowing, All-Powerful...

- ◆ O ALLAH, You are the One who responds to the Duas of Your servants.

SEEKING FORGIVENESS

---

- ◆ O MY ALLAH, have mercy upon us. We are extremely sinful servants. Day and night, we have disobeyed You. We have used Your bounties and gifts for Your disobedience.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we use the wealth that You have given, for Your disobedience.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we have used the sight, the hearing and the speech that You have blessed us with, for Your disobedience.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we have used the life which You have blessed us with, for Your disobedience.
- ◆ O ALLAH, when we go to hospitals, we see some people paralyzed and some attached to different tubes and machines ...yet O MY ALLAH, we do not take any lesson. We do not appreciate Your bounties.

- ◆ O ALLAH, Your bounties rain upon us 24 hours of the day.
- ◆ O ALLAH, despite our sins, You are giving us so much to eat and so much to drink; You are giving us clothes to wear and modes of transport to travel in.
- ◆ O ALLAH, You provide food, clothing and shelter for us.
- ◆ O ALLAH, our lives are in Your Control.
- ◆ O ALLAH, You keep our hearts, our kidneys, our livers, our lungs and our limbs functioning.
- ◆ O ALLAH, You have granted us Imaan<sup>7</sup>, without any sacrifice, and yet we show no appreciation.
- ◆ O ALLAH, in spite of our ungratefulness, in spite of our disobedience and sins, You continue to shower Your Bounties and Favours upon us.

...If there was another Allah, He would have destroyed us by now; He would have shaken the earth beneath our feet; He would have ordered the earth to swallow us; He would have sent the wind to destroy us; He would have made us blind by now; He would have made us deaf and dumb by now; He would have paralyzed us by now – for we have indulged in so many sins.

...Although we know, O Allah, that for some people blindness, deafness, dumbness, paralysis and illnesses are tests and means of elevation of status, but O Allah, how difficult life would have become without these bounties.

O ALLAH, how Merciful You are, that You did not snatch away these gifts and You did not destroy us.

- ◆ O ALLAH, as great as is Your beautiful name, forgive us.
- ◆ O ALLAH, open the floodgates of Your Rahmat<sup>8</sup> and Forgiveness.

- ◆ O ALLAH, if we have to ask, repeatedly, of human beings, they become annoyed, angry and displeased.
- ◆ O ALLAH, if we have to ask of You, then You become happy and pleased. ...The more we beg of You, the more pleased You become.
- ◆ O ALLAH, if we do not ask of You, You become displeased.
- ◆ O ALLAH, it is not a shame; rather an honour and privilege to beg of You.
- ◆ O MY BELOVED ALLAH, the pious and the righteous come to You with their Ibaadat<sup>9</sup>, with their Tilawat<sup>10</sup> and Zikr<sup>11</sup>, with their piety and their good deeds.
- ◆ ALLAH, we come to You with our sins.
- ◆ O ALLAH, our sins are like the mountains, but O Allah, we cannot despair of Your Mercy, for You have declared in the Qur'aan Shareef : 'Do not despair of the Mercy of Allah...'.<sup>12</sup>

<sup>12</sup> Surah Zumar 39 : 53

- ◆ O ALLAH, man has made dynamite sticks, which blow up huge mountains...
- ◆ O ALLAH ...There is absolutely nothing difficult for You to blow away our mountains of sins.
- ◆ O ALLAH, forgive our sins.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we have made our hearts into dirt bins.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we have filled our hearts with malice, with greed, with pride, with arrogance, with evil desires and passions...
- ◆ O ALLAH, evil desires and passions have engulfed our hearts.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we watch so much of Haraam<sup>13</sup>, we listen to so much of Haraam, we speak so much of Haraam, we indulge in so much of Haraam, that our hearts have become dark and pitch black.
- ◆ O MY BELOVED ALLAH, a guest would not like to stay in a room in which there are dead bodies, dead cats and dead rats...

Then O MY ALLAH, how can You, Pure as You are, come into hearts like ours; filled with the filth of pride, jealousy, malice, greed and other corpses?

But O ALLAH, who is there to purify our hearts, beside You?<sup>14</sup>

- ◆ O ALLAH, if the world's waste goes into the waters of the oceans, the oceans still remain clean. ...One wave is sufficient to keep everything clean.
- ◆ O ALLAH, when we make Wudhu<sup>15</sup> with the waters of the oceans, our Wudhu is valid; if we have to take Ghusl<sup>16</sup>, that Ghusl will be valid.
- ◆ O ALLAH, Your ocean of Forgiveness is much, much more than the oceans of this world. Just one drop from the ocean of Your Forgiveness is sufficient to wash away all our sins.

<sup>14</sup> Allah Ta'ala says in the Noble Qur'aan: "...AND WERE IT NOT FOR THE GRACE AND MERCY OF ALLAH ON YOU, NOT ONE OF YOU WOULD EVER HAVE BEEN PURE..." [Surah Noor 24 : 21]

- ◆ O MY ALLAH, with one wave of Your Mercy, with one wave of Your Forgiveness, clean and purify us.
- ◆ O ALLAH, even if our sins are more than the waves of the oceans, even if our sins are more than the grains of sand on earth, even if our sins are more than the leaves of the trees of the earth, even if our sins are more than the entire creation put together, then too Your Forgiveness is much, much, more than this.
- ◆ O THE MERCIFUL, have mercy upon us.
- ◆ O THE FORGIVING, forgive us.
- ◆ O ALLAH, even if some dry crumbs are thrown to a dog, that dog becomes obedient to that master. ...That dog does not leave the door of its master.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we have left Your door despite using so many of Your bounties and gifts. Our sight, our hearing, our speech, our intelligence are all ni'mats<sup>17</sup> from You...<sup>18</sup>

<sup>17</sup> Ni'mats : bounties

- ◆ O ALLAH, we have realized our mistake.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we have realized our error and our sin.
- ◆ O ALLAH, now we are turning towards You...
- ◆ O ALLAH, there is nothing else that makes us extend our hands, except that we are hopeful of Your Forgiveness.
- ◆ O MY ALLAH, Your beloved Nabi ﷺ informed us that something that is beloved to You, is the forgiveness of the sins of the sinners.
- ◆ O ALLAH, You are Oft Forgiving, Merciful, You love to forgive, so forgive us.<sup>18</sup>
- ◆ O ALLAH, we are acknowledging and we are confessing before You. We are not justifying our sins.

<sup>18</sup> Allah Ta'ala says in Surah Ibraheem [14 : 34]: "...AND IF YOU COUNT THE BLESSINGS OF ALLAH, YOU WILL NEVER BE ABLE TO ENUMERATE THEM..."

- ◆ O MY ALLAH, we may be sinful; we may be extremely sinful, but O Allah, we are Your servants. We are Your slaves.
- ◆ O MY ALLAH, whether we go east or west, whether we go north or south, whether we go deep down in the oceans or above the heavens, it is all Your Kingdom.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we are repeatedly asking and begging of You; for there is no other door except Your door.
- ◆ O ALLAH, if we leave You, where do we go? ...Who else is there for us, except You?
- ◆ O ALLAH, if we are going to become impatient and angry; if we are going to become displeased; if we are going to leave Your door, then O my Allah, which other door is there for us?
- ◆ O ALLAH, You are our Rabb<sup>20</sup>; You are our Khaaliq (Creator), You are our Maalik (Master), You are our Razzaaq (Sustainer)...

- ◆ O ALLAH, if a dog is kicked from one butcher, it can go to another. If a beggar is chased from one home, he can go to another. ...But O my Allah, if You reject us, then where do we go?
- ◆ ALLAH, there is no one for us except You.
- ◆ O ALLAH, do not turn away Your glance of Mercy because of our sins.
- ◆ O ALLAH, if You turn away Your glance of Mercy, then there is nothing for us but destruction in this world, destruction in the Qabr<sup>21</sup> and destruction in the Aakhirah<sup>22</sup>.
- ◆ O ALLAH, forgive the sins of our eyes; forgive the sins of our ears; forgive the sins of our tongues; forgive the sins of our hands and feet; forgive the sins of our hearts and minds...
- ◆ O ALLAH, forgive each and every sin that we have committed.
- ◆ O ALLAH, one major sin that we have committed is that we have stopped inviting towards good

and we have stopped preventing people from doing that which is Haraam.

- ◆ O ALLAH, instead, we invite others to Haraam and we prevent them from doing good. O Allah, we consider evil deeds as good and we consider good deeds as evil.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we do not want to go alone to Jahannum<sup>23</sup>, so we pull others along with us. We invite them to zina<sup>24</sup>, to drugs, to drink, to the rave clubs, to porn, to music, to casinos and to everything Haraam.
- ◆ O MY ALLAH, give us the realization that we are paving the way to our destruction and the destruction of others.
- ◆ O MY ALLAH, give each and every one of us the Taufeeq<sup>25</sup> of 'Amr bil Ma'roof and Nahy anil munkar'<sup>26</sup> – within our homes, amongst our families, in our societies, and calling – one and all – towards the beautiful Deen of Islam.

- ◆ O MY BELOVED ALLAH, forgive our major sins and our minor sins; forgive the sins which we committed knowingly or unknowingly, in the light of day or darkness of night.
- ◆ O ALLAH, there is no such thing as darkness for You. ...Even if there is a tiny, little black ant crawling on a black rock, in the darkest of the darkest of nights, You are aware of the movements of that ant.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we were deceiving ourselves. ...We were fooling ourselves if we thought that no one was watching when we were indulging in sins.<sup>27</sup>
- ◆ O ALLAH, do not seize us on account of our sins. Do not punish us on account of our sins.
- ◆ O ALLAH, give us the Taufeeq of sincere Taubah<sup>28</sup>.
- ◆ O ALLAH, from the time we have become of age till now, many, many were the sins we committed. O Allah, You could have seized us the moment we committed sins, but how Kind, Merciful and Tolerant You are that You did not seize us.

- ◆ O ALLAH, forgive each and every one of us. Forgive our parents, our wives and children, our brothers and sisters, our family members and the entire Ummah<sup>29</sup> of Rasulullah<sup>30</sup> (صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ)<sup>31</sup>.
- ◆ O ALLAH, do not cause any embarrassment to Your Beloved Rasul (صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) because of our sins.
- ◆ O ALLAH, You love to forgive, therefore forgive us.
- ◆ O ALLAH, if You do not forgive us, then who do sinful ones like us turn to?
- ◆ O ALLAH, there is no one who can question Your Forgiveness for sinful ones like us, so forgive us.

- ◆ O ALLAH, You provide for the birds; You provide for the fish deep down in the oceans; You provide for the animals in the jungles and You provide for us also...

- ◆ O ALLAH, we are the ones providing them with those sources which lead to Haraam.
- ◆ O ALLAH, we brought the evil television into our homes; we bring the filthy movies into our homes; we bring the filthy magazines and filthy literature into our homes. We give them everything that leads them to vice dens.

THE ACCEPTANCE OF DU'AA

وَقَالَ رَبُّكُمْ ادْعُونِي أَسْتَجِبْ لَكُمْ ط

“AND YOUR LORD SAYS : CALL ON ME; I WILL ANSWER YOUR (DU'AA)...”

[Surah Mu'min 40 : 60]

One of the signs of gaining the Ma'rifah (Recognition) of Allah Ta'ala is to be granted the Taufeeq of Du'a.

Duas made sincerely, fulfilling the necessary conditions, are always accepted. However, Allah Ta'ala, in His Wisdom, answers Duas in different ways.

Nabi ﷺ said: “Any Muslim who makes a Dua and his Dua does not contain a request for anything sinful or anything regarding the severance of family ties, Allah grants him one of three things most assuredly; namely,

- 1.) What he has asked is granted immediately, or
- 2.) What he has asked is saved for him as a treasure in the Aakhirah, or

3.) Allah wards away some calamity from him in lieu of the object asked for."

...A person should therefore not feel that his or her Duas are rejected.

[HAZRAT MAULANA YUNUS PATEL SAHEB (RA)]

DUA AND THE CORRECT EFFORT

BY HAZRAT MAULANA YUNUS PATEL SAHEB (RA)

A person wants to go to Johannesburg but he sits in a train or a plane bound for Cape Town, fully aware that the train or plane is headed for Cape Town. He then makes Du'aa that Allah Ta'ala takes him to Johannesburg. He will not reach Johannesburg.

THE LINE OF HIS DU'AA WAS NOT IN LINE WITH HIS EFFORT.

Similarly, our tongues are making Du'aa in one direction and our entire bodies are going in the opposite direction. And then we ask as to why our Duas are not answered...

AS AN EXAMPLE: There are so many parents who request Du'aa from the pious, for the Hidayat (guidance) of their children. They complain that their children are disobedient and abusive, or involved in illicit relationships, drugs, alcohol, and all kinds of Haraam. These parents say that they, themselves, are making so much of Du'aa and shedding so many tears over the condition of their children, and they request more Du'aa, because there is no change and improvement in their children.

However, a cursory glance in their homes, and one will find that those same parents, who are making so much of Du'aa and shedding so many tears, are the ones providing so much of Haraam – in the form of the television, music, Haraam video games, indecent, shameless newspapers, magazines and novels, easy access to the Internet porn sites, etc. – all of which introduce and influence to Fisq (sin) and Fujur (immorality).

Adding to this, many of these parents are the personal chauffeurs of their children: willingly taking them to the cinemas, theatres, to parties and other places of fitnah.

Rasulullah (صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَسَلَّمَ) said: 'Every child is born in a natural state of goodness. It is his parents who make him into a Jew, Christian or Magian<sup>162</sup>."

...It is left for us to see what we have made our children.

Furthermore, these children are allowed to do as they please. Sometimes there is no concern as to whose company they keep, which then becomes another means of their destruction – persuading them to do drugs, take alcohol, visit prostitutes, gamble, steal, etc.

Nabi ﷺ said: “A person is on the Deen (way of life) of his friend so every one of you should look at who he befriends.”

So together with Du'aa, it is also the responsibility of parents to provide an Islamic environment which facilitates obedience to Allah Ta'ala. It is also their duty to protect their children from all avenues of evil, to direct their children to good and pious company, and prevent them from bad company.

Allah Ta'ala tells us :

يَأَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا قُوْمٌ أَنفُسَكُمْ وَأَهْلِيْكُمْ نَارًا وَقُوْدُهَا النَّاسُ وَالْحِجَارَةُ

“O PEOPLE OF IMAAN, SAVE YOURSELVES AND YOUR FAMILIES FROM A FIRE WHOSE FUEL IS MEN AND STONES...”

[SURAH AT-TAHREEM 66 : 6]

It is an injunction of the Qur'aan Shareef that we make a very concerted effort to guide our children to the obedience of Allah Ta'ala, setting the example ourselves.

With teaching them Aqaa'id<sup>163</sup>, Qur'aan, Fiqh<sup>164</sup>, the Sunnah<sup>165</sup> and other necessary tenets of Islam which form their Tarbiyyah (the correct upbringing) accompanied with Du'aa, Insha-Allah<sup>166</sup>, this will be the means of their Hidayat (guidance) and Istiqaamat (steadfastness).

In the Tafseer (commentary) of this Ayat (verse), Hazrat Ali (رضي الله عنه) had stated: "Teach your family acts of virtue."

Rasulullah ﷺ said: "Each one of you is a shepherd and is responsible for his flock...A man is a ruler in his family, and he will be questioned about those under his care. A woman is a ruler in the house of her husband and she will be questioned about those under her care..."

Reflecting over all of these aspects, such parents should question the sincerity of their Du'aa. Where is the correct effort that should accompany their Duas and tears?

Hazrat Maulana 'Umar (Rahmatullah 'alayh) of Palanpur, in India, used to say that we have a small piece of flesh known as the tongue; which is making Du'aa... a great deal of time is sometimes spent in Du'aa; but the entire body, which is by far, weightier than that little tongue, is going in a very different direction; sometimes the completely opposite direction. ...How then does a person expect his Duas to be answered?

May Allah Ta'ala grant us the understanding and the ability to make the correct effort that should accompany our Duas.

<sup>166</sup> Insha-Allah : Allah Willing

NON ACCEPTANCE...

Hazrat Abu Hurairah (رضي الله عنه) reported that Rasulullah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) said:

“Certainly Allah is Pure. He does not accept but pure, and certainly Allah commanded the Believers to do that which He commanded the Messengers (of Allah) to do. So He said:

يَأَيُّهَا الرُّسُلُ كُلُّوا مِنَ الطَّيِّبَاتِ وَاغْمُلُوا صَالِحًا ط

‘O MESSENGERS, EAT OUT OF THE GOOD (HALAAL AND WHOLESOME) THINGS AND PERFORM RIGHTEOUS DEEDS.’<sup>167</sup>

and similarly Allah Ta’ala said :

يَأَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا كُلُّوا مِنْ طَيِّبَاتِ مَا رَزَقْنَاكُمْ

‘O YOU WHO BELIEVE, EAT OUT OF THE GOOD THINGS WE HAVE GIVEN YOU.’<sup>168</sup>

Then he (Rasulullah (صلى الله عليه وسلم)) mentioned a person who undertakes a long journey, his hair is dishevelled, and his body covered with dust. He raises his hands towards the sky and says: ‘O my

Sustainer, O my Sustainer', whereas the food that he eats is Haraam (from unlawful earnings); the clothes he wears is Haraam; and he has been nourished with Haraam (food). How then will his Du'aa be accepted?"<sup>169</sup>

Rasulullah ﷺ said: "The meat and blood that has been nourished with Haraam wealth will not enter Jannah. It is only suitable for Jahannum (hellfire)."<sup>170</sup>

- If a person sincerely repents from Haraam; returning what was usurped, repaying that which is rightfully due, giving up that which draws Haraam income (gambling, interest, embezzlement, etc.), and giving up Haraam food and drink, then his Duas will thereafter be accepted and he will gain salvation from Jahannum. Insha-Allah.

Hazrat Anas (رضي الله عنه) said: ‘Every Du’aa is prevented from reaching the Court of Allah until the person making Du’aa sends Durood upon Rasulullah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) and upon the family of Rasulullah (صلى الله عليه وسلم) (then it reaches the Court of Allah and is accepted).’

Hazrat ‘Umar (رضي الله عنه) said: ‘Surely Du’aa remains suspended between the heaven and earth. It does not ascend and nothing is accepted until you send Salawaat upon your Prophet (صلى الله عليه وسلم).’

- Any Durood Shareef may be recited for the acceptance of Du’aa. There are numerous found in authentic books of Hadeeth.

SINCERE REPENTANCE

BY HAZRAT MAULANA YUNUS PATEL SAHEB (RA)

وَمَنْ يَعْمَلْ سُوءًا أُوْيَظِلُمْ نَفْسَهُ ثُمَّ يَسْتَغْفِرِ اللَّهَ يَجِدِ اللَّهَ غَفُورًا رَّحِيمًا

"IF ANYONE DOES EVIL OR WRONGS HIS OWN SOUL, BUT AFTERWARDS SEEKS ALLAH'S FORGIVENESS, HE WILL FIND ALLAH, OFT-FORGIVING, MOST MERCIFUL."

[SURAH AN-NISAA 4 : 110]

In the Tafseer (commentary) of this Ayah (verse), the Mufassireen (Commentators of the Qur'aan Shareef) have explained that Allah Ta'ala makes known to us, the recourse of sins : Taubah (repentance).

Whatever the sins committed – be they major or minor, violations of the Rights of Allah Ta'ala (Huququllah) or the rights of human beings (Huququl Ibaad), sincere Taubah (repentance) will secure Divine forgiveness.

However, we need to understand that Taubah is not merely a verbal announcement and confession of: Astaghfirullah (I seek Allah's forgiveness). The validity and acceptance of Taubah is dependent on certain accompanying conditions.

The ‘Ulama have stated the following 3 necessary segments which complete one’s Taubah :

- 1.) Being ashamed and grieved over one’s sins.
- 2.) Leaving off the sin immediately.
- 3.) Having no intention to commit the sin again.

If, perchance, one finds oneself entangled in sin thereafter, Taubah should be made once more and forgiveness should be sought. ...Allah Ta’ala forgives all sins.

Even though Allah Ta’ala is Most Merciful, Forgiving, Kind and Compassionate, we should not lose sight of and forget His punishment for those who are persistent in sin. Often, many continue in their indulgence in sins, presenting the argument that Allah Ta’ala is Ghafurur - Raheem (Most Forgiving, Most Merciful).

One of the deceptions of shaytaan is that he persuades and encourages a person to sin with this very excuse that Allah Ta’ala is Ghafurur-Raheem. This leads to indifference to the laws of Shariah and even deliberate disobedience.

Therefore, Allah Ta’ala warns us in the Qur`aan Shareef against such an attitude, saying :

وَلَا يَغُرِّنَّكُم بِاللَّهِ الْغَرُورُ

“...LET NOT THE DECEIVER (I.E. SHAYTAAN) BEGUILDE YOU IN REGARD TO ALLAH.”

[SURAH LUQMAAN 31 : 33]

...Do not be fooled and misled by shaytaan to commit sins because Allah Ta'ala is Most Forgiving and Most Merciful.

Allah Ta'ala mentions in Surah Ta-Ha :

وَإِنِّي لَغَفَارٌ لِمَنْ تَابَ وَأَمَنَ وَعَمِلَ صَالِحًا ثُمَّ اهْتَدَى

“AND VERILY, I AM INDEED FORGIVING TO HIM WHO REPENTS, BELIEVES (IN MY ONENESS, AND ASSOCIATES NONE IN WORSHIP WITH ME) AND DOES RIGHTEOUS (GOOD) DEEDS, AND THEN REMAINS CONSTANT IN DOING THEM (TILL DEATH).”

[SURAH TA-HA 20 : 82]

Allah Ta'ala is informing us that His Forgiveness extends to those who make sincere Taubah and Istighfaar, believe in Allah Ta'ala, do righteous deeds and actions and remain steadfast thereon.

Allah Ta'ala is Ghafurur-Raheem for those who are afraid of displeasing Him. However, being human, they accidentally sin.

We should keep in mind, that even though Allah Ta'ala is Ghafurur-Raheem, He is also Muntaqim – One who takes Retribution. Out of His kindness, Allah Ta'ala gives to us numerous opportunities to make amends and return to His Obedience. If we still persist and insist on sin, and we are bent on disobedience, then His Punishment is something that cannot be escaped.

Allah Ta'ala states in the Qur'aan Shareef :

وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَذُو مَغْفِرَةٍ لِلنَّاسِ عَلَى ظُلْمِهِمْ ۝ وَإِنَّ رَبَّكَ لَشَدِيدُ الْعِقَابِ ○

'...BUT VERILY YOUR LORD IS FULL OF FORGIVENESS FOR MANKIND FOR THEIR WRONG-DOING. AND VERILY YOUR LORD IS (ALSO) STRICT IN PUNISHMENT.'

[SURAH RA'D 13 : 6]

...Taubah and Istighfaar are like the ointment used for burns, which we keep in our homes. Even though we have a remedy for burns, we will not deliberately burn ourselves.

Furthermore, forgiveness for those sins in respect to people, will have to be secured from those whose rights have been violated and who were wronged.

IMMEDIATE WILAYAT<sup>174</sup>

BY HAZRAT MAULANA YUNUS PATEL SAHEB (RA)

إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ التَّوَابِينَ

“...VERILY ALLAH LOVES THOSE WHO REPENT...”

[SURAH BAQARAH 2 : 222]

A young person, after listening to a talk, experienced a revolution in his heart. He asked me: “With my past, with the sins in my life, how is it possible for me to become a Wali<sup>175</sup> ?”

I said: “It is extremely simple. It takes just one minute to become a Wali. Raise your hands and with deep regret and remorse in your heart, shed a few tears and pray to Allah Ta’ala: ‘O Allah, I have wasted my life, but I want to become Your Wali; I want to become Your friend. So forgive all the sins which I have committed since maturity, and grant me the Taufeeq to do that which pleases You in my future life.’

You have immediately become a Wali. Now make an effort towards fulfilling those rights which had been violated. The effort made indicates to the sincerity of your Taubah.”

If Salaah and Fasts were missed then Qaza must necessarily be made. If Zakaah, Qurbaani and Sadaqatul Fitr were not fulfilled, then such monies must necessarily be paid. The same applies to monies that are owing to people. Pay back to whomsoever, what is due, or ask them to forgive. If not, then that Taubah will not be complete. And if harm and injury was caused to another, his forgiveness should be sought.

If there are a number of outstanding Salaah or fasts due, it is obvious that a person cannot read all the Qazas<sup>175</sup> in one day, or keep all his missed fasts in one day. This will take due time. However, the intention of the person, to fulfil all dues of Allah Ta'ala and creation, and the effort made in that direction makes the person a friend and beloved of Allah Ta'ala.

If the person does not make any effort in that direction after Taubah, then this is a clear sign that he was not sincere in his Taubah.

Also, in respect to his future life, every effort should be made not to return to sins.

<sup>175</sup> Wali : Friend of Allah Ta'ala

<sup>176</sup> Qaza : Religious duty performed after the expiry of its time.

THE AIRPORT

BY HAZRAT MAULANA YUNUS PATEL SAHEB (RA)

At the Johannesburg International Airport<sup>177</sup>, some brothers requested that I give them some nasihah (advice) before leaving.

I mentioned the following: 'The Airport itself presents sufficient Ibrat (lesson) for a person's Islaah (reformation).

Boards are seen, computer screens inform, and announcements are repeatedly heard of ARRIVALS and DEPARTURES. We should take lesson from this.

We have 'arrived'. Our scheduled arrival to the destination of this world has come to pass. We have journeyed from Aalame-Arwah<sup>178</sup> to this transitory world. Our next journey is to 'Aalame-Barzakh',<sup>179</sup>.

In this material world, the time of departure is given for the flights that are leaving for various cities and countries. A person can make preparations for travel, accordingly. As is common experience

<sup>179</sup> Aalame-Barzakh : The period of life after death until the Resurrection though, flights are generally delayed.

Our departure, to the Aakhirah (Hereafter), is scheduled, but absolutely unknown to us. Moreover, this time of departure will not be delayed or cancelled.

حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءَ أَحَدُكُمُ الْمُوْتُ تَوَفَّهُ رُسُلُنَا وَهُمْ لَا يُفَرِّطُونَ ○

“...AT LENGTH WHEN DEATH APPROACHES ONE OF YOU, OUR ANGELS TAKE HIS SOUL AND THEY NEVER FAIL IN THEIR DUTY.”
[SURAH AN`AAM : 6 : 61]

In a couplet that deeply impresses upon the reality of this life, my Shaykh, Hazrat Maulana Hakeem Muhammad Akhtar Saheb (Daamat Barakaatuhum), states:

*Strange is the visa of life;
It can be cancelled at anytime.
The duration of its validity is unknown
And its extension too, impossible*

Therefore, we need to be ever ready for the journey to the Hereafter.

Passengers are either seated in the VIP lounge or in the ordinary waiting area. Whether the person intends traveling ‘First Class’, ‘Business Class’ or ‘Economy Class’; all will depart. Each has a boarding pass in hand. It is just a matter of time before departure.

The Azaan in our right ear, and the Iqaamah in our left ear, were already given at the time of our birth. All that is left is the Janaza Salaah at the time of our death. Just as the time between the Iqaamah and Salaah is negligible – so too is the time span of our lives.

As someone has mentioned: Our life is just like the ‘dash’ between the date of birth and the date of passing away, which is inscribed on many tombstones. Though this ‘dash’ of life is so short, it is such a significant stage in our journey that it either ‘makes’ or ‘breaks’ our Hereafter.

This little dash either delivers a person to Jannah or Jahannum. So before someone mentions the date of our departure, we should convert the ‘dash’ of life to time spent securing provisions for the coming journey.

Then I mentioned that now two new boards are to be found:

UNDERGROUND PARKING

and

PRAYER ROOM UPSTAIRS

Our 'parking' too is reserved. ...What then should we do? Before 'departure' and before being 'parked' under the ground, we should visit the 'prayer room' – meaning, that we should bring the submission and servitude found in prayer or Salaah, into our lives. Submit to the One who gave us this life because very soon will we be returning to Him.

وَإِلَى اللَّهِ الْمُصِيرُ

“...AND THE DESTINATION (OF ALL) IS TO ALLAH.”

[SURAH AHZAAB 35 : 18]

In addition, this world is very much like a time-share. The occupants make full use of all facilities during that week or month – the lounge, fridge, stove, furniture, air conditioner and the luxuries of the timeshare. However, they know that they will have to move out as soon as their time expires.

Similarly, we should make use of the bounties of Allah Ta'ala in this world but we should not give our hearts to this world. ...How can we give our hearts to a world which is so unfaithful? ...The home in which there is excitement and celebration of a wedding is suddenly plunged into grief, sorrow and mourning.

We should keep before us the following Hadeeth of Rasulullah ﷺ: ‘Verily, the world has been created for you and you have been created for the Aakhirah.’

Preparation for the Aakhirah (Hereafter) does not mean that we will be deprived of the good things of this world. Eat, drink, marry, conduct business and do all other activities according to the teachings of the Shariah and Sunnah of Rasulullah ﷺ. This is all that is required.

May Allah Ta'ala grant us all, death on Imaan, at a time when He is pleased with us.

○ تَوَفَّنِي مُسْلِمًا وَ أَلْحِقْنِي بِالصَّابِرِينَ

“...(O MY LORD) TAKE YOU MY SOUL (AT DEATH) AS ONE
SUBMITTING TO YOUR WILL (AS A MUSLIM), AND UNITE ME WITH THE RIGHTEOUS.”

[SURAH YUSUF 12 : 101]
